Holiday Announcement.

Plans made months—some of them a twelvemonth—since have brought this store and the stocks into the grandest condition of fitness and completeness for the holidays we ever knew.

Each year's lessons have been but as stepping stones

To Better Doing,

To Higher Achievement,

To Broader, More Liberal Trading

In every department of the business. Now, with each stock in harmony with the new Litions, with the spirit of the season inspiring the whole house, the forward pace will be quickened as the month advances.

We thought it worth while to get the world's best for our public, therefore we sent the heads of several departments abroad, with instructions to visit every style center of the old world, and gather freely of the best.

Between 350 and 400 cases of Foreign Goods have been received through the Georgetown Custom House, the contents of which have been distributed through the various stocks. And while these tons of foreign merchandise are here, our American buyers have been in New York securing the latest products as they reached that market.

Hence, both Europe and America have been searched for beauty and newness-and whenever possible-exclusiveness. And the exclusive things are priced on the same basis as the rest of the goods.

There is every desirable kind of gift thing here—something suitable for every age and condition, for amusement, individual needs, family requirements and home adornment. Assortments vast, comprehensive and magnificent in each respective line.

Paris, Berlin and Vienna Novelties, Bric-a-Brac and Italian Marble Statuary, Foreign Pottery, etc., representing rare and beautiful specimens of our direct importation and personal selection, designed especially for Holiday Gifts. Women's and Children's Furnishings, Wraps, Suits, Dress Goods, Silks, Table and Toilet Linens or other practical, every-day articles for personal or home use—and such gifts will play a very prominent part this year—we offer you an opportunity to buy better values than at any time in our business history.

We Shall Adhere to Our Custom of Past Seasons, and Engrave, Free of Charge,

Initials on Umbrellas costing from $2.00 up; initials on Silverware and Jewelry; and will mark initials or name on all Leather Goods costing over $1.00. We will also furnish suitable boxes for Gloves, Handkerchiefs, Neckwear and other goods whose gift fitness would be enhanced thereby.

Any purchase, large or small, will be carefully stored and delivered when it suits you best, up to and including December 24th.

Crests, Initials, Monograms Embroidered to Order.

If you contemplate having Handkerchiefs, Towels, Table Linens or other articles embroidered for Holiday Gifts, we would suggest, that to prevent disappointment, you order early. As a matter of course, there is some limit to the quantity of fine work of this kind

Our work is of the very best and prices are moderate. We have a designer of many years' experience, and we can supply designs or can reproduce any designs submitted to us.

Improved Holiday Appliances and Conveniences

For the transaction of our great business mark the present season, and the greatest business of the year, which comes to us in these days preceding Christmas, will this year be transacted more swiftly, with less friction, than ever before, and with increased comfort to our patrons.

Many departments have been enlarged; location of several has been changed; all have been readjusted—placing kindred goods in conveneient nearness, thus effecting to the purchaser a saving of much time and many steps. The Bureau of Information, Superintendent's Desk, Telegraph Office, Telephone Station, Package Checking Rooms, Postal Facilities, etc.-are all on the first floor for the convenience of patrons. The Transfer Counter is also located on main floor, 10th street side, thus expediting the settlement of transfer checks or shopping cards. And especial attention of purchasers is directed to our Shopping Card, by the use of which a simultaneous delivery and single settlement of purchases throughout the store is effected. This avoids the necessity of waiting for change and signing of tickets at each purchase and saves much annoyance and loss of time. These cards may be obtained from any sales person or aisle manager.

The Mezzanine Reception Room (between the first and second floors) has been enlarged and beautified, and will be found a greater comfort and delight than ever to the holiday shopper.

The large Reception Parlor on fourth floor, with retiring rooms, lavatories, etc., is another delightful rest place.

The elevator service is ample, there being seven in all, of the most modern type, for passenger and freight use. The delivery service has been reconstructed; several new and handsome wagons have been added—giving us twenty-five in all—and affording a promptness and efficiency of service unsurpassed by any in the country.

The best cash carrier system known is in use, and an additional cash desk has been established on main floor, thereby securing the quickest change service possible. In a word, all has been done that ingenuity and expert skill can contrive to enhance the convenience and increase the comfort of the buying public, and to lighten the labor of our employes.

Our Great Xmas Toy Bazaar.

That half-acre store on fourth floor is teeming with playthings from every toy center of the world, many of which are or our own direct importation and haven't a counterpart hereabouts. Every sort of Toy (barring the thrown-together-trashy kind) that can be seen in Washington or elsewhere is to be found here and in liberal assortment. And we make a point to coilect toys that cannot be seen anywhere else. Many of these are now being displayed.

Thousands of Dolls are here. There are the fine big Dolls, stylishly dressed. There are Dolls that will not break; some that won't go to sleep and hundreds that will. Then, there are Doll Houses and Furniture to completely furnish the houses; Dolls' Clothing and Outfittings and every convenience for the dolls, from the baby's first bottle to the hand mirror and puff box for her maturer Musical Toys, Kittens and Funny People, Horse and Carriage Outfits, Teams, Carts, Mimic Work Things. All sorts of Forts ready made, Drums, Uniforms, and the like.

Scores of things that "go," from the Clowns that turn somersaults to the great locomotives that draw long trains of cars, We are introducing Hilbrand's Imported Chocolate Toys. They are strictly high class, pure goods, and are put up as Cats, Dogs, Turtles, Elephants, Pistols, Bicycles. &c. We show them in a separate booth designed for the purpose. We also display in an artistically designed booth, lighted by tri-colored electric lights, an extensive line of Christmas Tree Ornaments. Mottoes, German Favors, &c .- scores and hundreds of articles in odd, unique, quaint and grotesque forms, many of which are entirely new, of our direct importation, and distinctly different from those of past seasons.

A feature of our Toy Store is the classification of Toys-each kind being displayed in a separate section or on a separate counter. You will find this arrangement very helpful in making your selections.

A Military Wedding at Chevy Chase at Noon Today.

MISS LEMLY BECOMES MRS. PARKER

Another Problem in Official Etiquette Awaits Solution.

OTHER TIMELY TOPICS

The marriage of Miss Katharine Lemly and Lieutenant James S. Parker, U. S. A., at Chevy Chase at noon today was witnessed by a gathering of relatives of the contracting parties and personal friends of the young couple, in all about 100. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. Childs, and the couple stood without attendants, save two five-year-old children, Katharine Swift, niece of the bride and daughter of Captain and Mrs. Swift, and Parker Kuhn, nephew of the groom and son of Captain and Mrs. Kuhn. After the wedding breakfast Lieutenant and Mrs. Parker left for a ten days' trip before proceeding to the former's new post at the Presidio in California.

The event was in all respects an army wedding, as both bride and groom are of families whose men have served their country with distinction. The charming young bride is a real army girl. Her great-grandfather was Colonel Llewellyn Jones, she is the graddaughter of General Innis N. Palmer and the daughter of Captain Henry Rowan Lemly of the 7th Artillery, now in South America. The gallant young officer who has received the congratulations of his friends today is the son of Major and Mrs. R. C. Parker, a Washington boy and a graduate from West Point in '95. Lieutenant Parker returned lately from Manila, where he had participated in several engagements in command of his troop under General Lawton.

The guests at the wedding entered the cozy residence of Captain and Mrs. Lemly by the east portico, which is a sun parlor in the winter. It was hung with flags and decked with palms. The drawing room and was Colonel Llewellyn Jones, she is the

The drawing room and hall were adorned with vines and palms and quantities of yellow flowers, in honor of the groom's branch of the service, the and quantities of yellow howers, in honor of the groom's branch of the service, the cavalry. The west parlor was decorated with white flowers and a bower was arranged in the bay window, where the couple stood for the ceremony. An orchestra stationed in the hall played the wedding march and throughout the breakfast. The youthful flower bearers, both dressed in white and looking as pretty as pictures, walked down stairs ahead of the bride, who was accompanied by her mother, who gave her hand in marriage. The bride was gowned in white satin trimmed with mousseline de sole and Chantilly lace. She wore a tulle veil and carried a bouquet of bride roses and valley lilies. The groom was in his full dress uniform. Mrs. Lemly wore an elegant costume of black velvet and point lace and Mrs. Parker was also in black velvet and jet.

As is well known. Admiral Dewey's rank, by virtue of its creation by act of Congress, is above that of Gen. Miles, but the army has al-ways preceded the navy at these functions because of its earlier formation in the his-tory of the country. There have been, however, a few notable exceptions to this rule. When Gen. Sheridan succeeded Gen. Sherman in command of the army Admiral Porter ranked him, and on New Year day and subsequent occasions during each season at the White House the admiral, followed by the officers of the navy, preceded Gen. Sheridan and army officers the lowed by the officers of the navy, preceded Gen. Sheridan and army officers to the presence of the chief executive. The same conditions are again presented in the persons of Admiral Dewey and Gen. Miles, so it is to be presumed that the present order of precedence will be reversed, and that the navy, headed by the hero of Manila, will extend New Year greetings to the President before the other branch of the nation's defenders will enjoy the same privilege. The decision, however, awaits the attention of the President, and must be made before the details of the reception made before the details of the reception program can be announced.
